

You've Got to be Kidding:

A brief account of our complicated UMC racial history

Thursday, June 8, 2023 – Noon

American Bank Convention Center–Watergarden B
Corpus Christi, Texas

10th Peace & Justice Luncheon

Sponsored by

Rio Texas Methodist Federation for Social Action (MFSA)

Featuring

Rev. John Elford

Rev. John Elford served several churches in the Southwest and Rio Texas Conference before his appointment to University UMC in Austin, where he retired in 2021. There he was active with a number of organizations, including Central Texas Interfaith, Pastors for Texas Children, Texas Freedom Network, Worker's Defense Project, Grassroots Organizing, and Reconciling Ministries. His first book, Our Hearts Were Strangely Lukewarm: The American Methodist Church and the Struggle with White Supremacy, will be out this June.

In addition, we will honor the recipients of the MFSA Building a Just Community Awards.
